

AAA-CPA

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
OF ATTORNEY-CERTIFIED
PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Pre-Annual Meeting Events

Sponsored by the Southern California Chapter

We invite you to join us in advance of the Annual Meeting & Education Conference in the Los Angeles area for education and networking as Attorney-CPAs throughout the country come together to celebrate 50 years.

Sunday, June 29

Education Programs Presented by Jay Foonberg, Esq., CPA

Attendees will receive 2 CLE/CPE credits

"How To Ethically Make Money and Stay Out Of Trouble" (3:00-4:00pm)

Learn the basic techniques to satisfy often overlooked client needs and simultaneously avoid ethics and malpractice complaints (Ethics, Office management, General Non Technical CLE)

"How to Protect Your Clients' Trust Accounts and Your Bank Accounts from Theft, Embezzlement, and Fraud" (4:15-5:15pm) Law offices and lawyers are especially vulnerable to fraud, embezzlement, and theft. Learn the reasons and the best practices to prevent the problems (Ethics, Fraud, A and A.)

Jay Foonberg has served in the ABA House of Delegates; he is on the Advisory Council for the ABA Commission on Evaluation of the Rules of Professional Conduct and he was a founder of the ABA Law Practice Management Section. His book, How To Start and Build a Law Practice (5th edition) is the book that is most frequently stolen from law libraries in the United States and it has earned more than $1 million for the ABA, and has been their best seller every year since 1977. Mr. Foonberg is the author of three other important books, all available from the ABA: How to Get and Keep Good Clients (3rd edition); Finding the Right Lawyer; and The ABA Guide to Lawyer Trust Accounts. A much sought after speaker, Jay has led seminars and taught client relations, malpractice prevention, legal ethics and client development in every one of the 50 states and as far afield as Europe, South America and Asia in English, Spanish, and Portuguese. Jay earned his JD from UCLA Law School and has received the prestigious Harrison Tweed Award, CLE's highest honor. He lives and practices in Beverly Hills, CA.
