In Memoriam: L. Harold Levinson

With sadness the AAA-CPA would like to inform members of the passing of Professor L. Harold Levinson, one of two Honorary Past Presidents of the AAA-CPA and a 1999 recipient of the Louis Goldberg award. He died on January 27th from complications from Parkinson’s Disease. He will be buried in Nashville alongside his late wife. Harold was a Professor of Law at Vanderbilt University in Nashville for 26 years and enjoyed Emeritus status for more than a decade thereafter. He previously had taught at the University of Florida. Harold moved to the DC area a decade ago following the death of his wife. He attended Capital Area Chapter meetings for several years for so long as he was able. To read his obituary please click here.

Several members have inquired on contributions in his memory. The Attorney-CPA Foundation will gladly accept gifts in his honor and their official policy is as follows: Memorial Funds are generally funds established through friends & fellow members of AAA-CPA in honor of deceased members. These funds are not restricted except for that the use of these funds shall be at the discretion of the Board of Trustees.

Guidelines for Memorial Funds (Adopted 7/3/2009)

• Memorial Funds received in honor of a member or spouse shall be held as restricted funds in such parties’ name. The funds shall be available for use by the Foundation “for the purposes of the Foundation as provided for in the Articles of Incorporation.

• Any expenditure of a memorial fund shall provide for proper acknowledgement of the memorialized person in the program materials or by other means.

Allocation of Expenses to Memorial, Scholarship, and other funds. (Adopted 11/2009)

The expenses of the foundation may be allocated between the general fund and all other funds on such terms as the trustees shall determine from time to time. Such allocation can be based on an allocation out of pocket cost plus an amount designed to cover all or a part of donated services received by the foundation.

If you’d like to contribute, please contact the AAA-CPA office at nratner@attorney-cpa.com or via phone to 888-288-9272. If you’d like to make a donation to the Foundation in his memory for their general fund that may also be done either online at www.attorney-cpa.com or by mailing a check payable to The Attorney-CPA Foundation to 3921 Old Lee Highway, Ste. 71A, Fairfax, VA 22030.

OBITUARY

LEVINSON, Leslie Harold Passed away January 27, 2011 with his two daughters by his side. Professor Levinson was born in Bournemouth, England, began his career as an accountant, and later attained three degrees in law. He found his calling as a law professor and taught at Vanderbilt University Law School for thirty years, before retiring and moving to Maryland to be closer to his daughters after his dear wife Joan passed away. Professor Levinson set an example with his modesty and compassion, and was known and loved for his intellect, optimism, and humor. He loved his family and they will miss him dearly. He will also be missed by his colleagues, friends and the hundreds of students who were able to learn from him. He is survived by sister, Natasha (Norman) Elmslie; daughter, Andrea (Yigal) Ben-Yosef and granddaughters, Daniella, Maya and Talia; and daughter, Lara Levinson, her husband, Etay Crespen and granddaughter, Amelia. Graveside service Sunday, January 30th at 12:30 p.m., at K.K.S.I. Cemetery, 18th Ave. North and Cass Street. MARSHALL-DONNELLY-COMBS, (615) 327-1111.