

HELP HONOR THE LEGACY OF LISA KRIVICKAS, M.D., FACSM

Background: Lisa Krivickas, M.D., FACSM, was a dedicated, 20-year member of ACSM. She was the former chair of the Strategic Health Initiative for Women, Sport and Physical Activity. She has been a friend and colleague to many in ACSM – and served as a mentor for many student members and new investigators. With direction from two ACSM members – Angela Smith, M.D., FACSM and Sheila Dugan, M.D., FACSM, the ACSM Foundation wishes to honor Dr. Krivickas with a named travel award.

Award: The Lisa Krivickas Travel Award would be given annually to a female clinician scientist in order to fund travel to the ACSM Annual Meeting. Dr. Smith is willing to contribute a lead gift/contribution to establish the travel fund.

Fund Parameters: Consistent with precedent, funding of a travel award would begin once cumulative contributions reach $25,000. Suggested payout would be one (1) annual award of $500 to a female clinician/scientist to fund travel to the ACSM Annual Meeting.

Yes! I wish to celebrate the legacy of Dr. Krivickas by supporting women in clinical science.
