

Bridging the gap between science and practice®

2010 Lawrence A. Golding Student Health/Fitness Scholarship

Background: This annual award will be given in honor of Lawrence A. Golding, Ph.D., FACSM current chair of the Health and Fitness Summit program planning committee, and immediate past editor of ACSM's Health and Fitness Journal.

Healthy Learning™, who is underwriting this award, will be granting two awards per year (one for a female and one for a male).

1. Must (at time of application), be a student in good standing in either their sophomore through senior year student majoring in exercise and health or a related field.
2. Must be a current ACSM member in good standing (regular or alliance)
3. Must have a faculty sponsor (he/she must sign application)
4. Applicants must answer all questions, complete the official application and submit via ACSM on or before 11/20/09.

Incomplete applications will not be considered.

Applicants: Designed to publicly recognize and honor undergraduate students who have made significant outstanding contributions to their communities in health, fitness and/or education.

Those applying should be exceptional leaders and students in their school and/or community.

Students in either their sophomore through senior year are encouraged to apply, and must meet the following requirements:
