

56th Annual AEG Meeting: Web registration opening; call for abstracts extended to May 17

Registration for AEG Annual Meeting will be open this week. Visit www.aegweb.org to read more about the program of events at the Annual Meeting, and register today.

The Geologic Resource Management Technical Working Group is currently accepting abstracts for papers and presentations for this technical session focused on mining resource management projects. The focus is on post mining environmental but papers on the subject during mining will also be welcomed.

Submit your abstract now to be sure you get a chance to present. Presenting at the AEG Annual Meeting is an invaluable experience for students, professionals, teachers, and government employees alike. It's an opportunity to share your knowledge and receive valuable feedback from your contemporaries. Visit <http://www.aegweb.org/events/aeg-annual-meeting/2013-seattle> to submit your abstract today!