

Thank you for making the 56th AEG Annual Meeting a success!

Congratulations to Annual Meeting Co-Chairs, Mark Molinari and Kathy Troost, and the entire Annual Meeting Committee for their outstanding accomplishments in planning and coordinating this year's Annual Meeting! Thank you to our sponsors, exhibitors, student volunteers, staff, and meeting attendees for contributing to the meeting's success. There were a number of high points at this year's Annual Meeting and we would like to share a few with you:

- This year's Annual Meeting coincided with the 50th Anniversary of the AEG Washington Section. Happy birthday AEG Washington Section!
- During the Opening Session, we welcomed and congratulated Gregory Hempen on becoming the 2013-2014 Richard H. Jahns Distinguished Lecturer in Engineering Geology.
- At the Corporate Business Luncheon, the election results were announced and we welcomed in our new AEG President, Gary Luce; Vice President-President Elect, Ken Fergason; Treasurer, Paul Santi; and Secretary, Dale Andrews. Thank you to Matt Morris for your dedication and hard work on behalf of the Association. Matt is now a Past President of AEG. Thank you to all of you for serving on the AEG Executive Council!
- During the Awards Banquet, many outstanding AEG members were recognized including, Allen Hatheway, who received the Claire P. Holdredge Award; Terry West, who received Honorary Member; Abdul Shakoor, who received the Karl & Ruth Terzaghi Mentor Award; and Paul Hale, who received the Floyd T. Johnson Service Award.
- The Seattle meeting boasted over 500 meeting registrations, making it the largest Annual Meeting since the 50th AEG Annual Meeting in Los Angeles.
- Over 200 Technical Session and Symposia talks were presented this year and we congratulate all of you on your hard work and thank you for sharing your knowledge and technical expertise with AEG members.

We look forward to seeing you again, next year, in Scottsdale, AZ!
