

Strategic Planning Committee: Implementing AEG's strategic vision

Find out more about this and other AEG Committees in upcoming issues of the AEG Insider. We will be profiling many of the AEG Operational Committees so you can learn more about them, find out how to join and give back to AEG and hear about their accomplishments on behalf of the Association. This week's profile – the Strategic Planning Committee (SPC).

What does your committee do?

- The Strategic Planning Committee supports the AEG's operational committees in achieving their respective goals under the umbrella of the association's mission, vision and values. The SPC interacts regularly with the Executive Council and reports to the Board of Directors.

Why should I join your committee?

- Because you want to be involved in the nerve center of the association.

What has your committee accomplished?

- We launched the 2013 Needs Assessment.

Who are the contacts for your committee?

- Duane Kreuger (d_kreuger@geotechnology.com), Deb Green, (tilgreen@aol.com) and Julia Turney, (luketurn@gmail.com)
