

Don't miss out on additional training opportunities available at SAFETECH 2010 in San Diego... for those who need to pass a few electives towards the next level of the PRP, SAVTA will be offering an opportunity to take ALOA classes that include PRP elective exams at the end of each class.

SAVTA and ALOA members will receive special rates for the SAFETECH Convention in San Diego, CA on April 19-24th at the beautiful Bahia Resort on Mission Bay. There will be 4 full days of classes and one half day of classes along with all of the other wonderful experiences that surround our conventions with kickoff parties and a trade show.
