

AUTM Accepting Scholarship and Literature Review Prize Applications

AUTM is now accepting scholarship applications from students, scholars and new professionals pursuing a career in academic technology transfer.

Howard Bremer Scholarship

Application Deadline: August 23, 2014

Named to honor our esteemed colleague, a pioneering AUTM member and past president of the association, the scholarship is awarded to those who — like Bremer — wish to bring creativity and innovation to the academic technology transfer profession. The scholarship offers complimentary registration and a travel allowance to attend the AUTM 2015 Annual Meeting, February 22 – 25, in New Orleans, Louisiana, USA.

Academic Tech Transfer and Commercialization Graduate Student Literature Review Prize

Application Deadline: September 18, 2014

The Graduate Student Literature Review Prize provides an incentive to scholars to think about new ways their work can serve the technology transfer community. The first place prize is $1,000, plus a free registration for the AUTM 2015 Annual Meeting and up to $1,000 to cover travel costs. Second and third place prizes are also awarded.

Scholarships for New Technology Transfer Professionals from Developing Economies

Application Deadline: September 9, 2014

Enhances learning opportunities for early career technology transfer professionals working in developing economies. The scholarships offer up to $4,000 to support AUTM members' travel to and participation in an AUTM sponsored or co-sponsored meeting or professional development course.