

BC Electrical Association Awards Outstanding Individual Award

Nomination forms must be received by the BCEA no later than November 15, 2019

The purpose of this award is to recognize an individual that has shown leadership and noteworthy achievement in their community and have demonstrated professional contributions to the electrical industry. The individuals are not required to be a member of the BCEA but their accomplishments must be recognized in the electrical trade in British Columbia. This individual could also be someone who has battled back through troubled times to continue doing their job or creating opportunities for others.

Criteria:

- BCEA Member or Non-Member
- Individual must be a BC resident for at least five years
- Contributions and leadership should be recognized in the electrical industry
- Individual can be retired
- Must be able to attend the Christmas/Awards Luncheon on December 6, 2018 or have someone accept the award on their behalf
