WANT TO BECOME A CERTIFIED ALCOHOL AND DRUG COUNSELOR?

ANNOUNCING NEW CLASSES
CAARR and CAADAC are now CCAPP
California Consortium of Addiction Programs and Professionals

Classes held: Northern & Southern California

Classes begin January 10, 2015 and consist of an orientation class, 25 weeks of instruction, and graduation ceremony. Classes start at 9am and last until 4pm on Saturdays with some Saturdays off on major holiday weekends. The classes will fulfill the educational requirements for state certification.

Cost of the course has increased to $1,200 for non-CCAPP member program participants and $1,000 for CCAPP member program employees and volunteers. Payments can be made in installments - $200 due at orientation, and $250 on the 5th, 10th, 15th and 20th weeks of instruction. There are several funding options available - self pay, employer funded, or State Department of Rehabilitation.

To place your name on list contact Gwen Love 916.338.9460 xt.24

---

First Annual CCAPP Conference October 30 – November 2
Hyatt Regency, Mission Bay
For more info and to register visit CCAPP.us

---

DHCS ANNOUNCES DEADLINE FOR RAS CERTIFICATION TRANSFER
All RAS Certified counselors must obtain certification from an approved Certifying Organization by March 19, 2015 at ccaptransfer.com; transfers can be made with no additional education requirements and at no cost. RAS certified counselors will be certified, not registered, thereby maintaining their status to work as a certified counselor in licensed and certified programs by the March 19 deadline. Following is a link to the Department's announcement: