

ACCLAIMED SOUTHERN INTERIOR DESIGNER LAUNCHES NEW TABLETOP AND ENTERTAINING BOOK: Four Seasons of Entertaining in April 2019

###

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Little Rock, Arkansas, March 7th, 2019 - Award-winning designer, speaker, author, and philanthropist Shayla Copas is one the South's most acclaimed luxury designers and tastemakers. She is pleased to announce the launch of her new tabletop and entertaining book, Four Seasons Of Entertaining, in April 2019.

Join a tour of 16 glamorous seasonal celebrations ranging from Cinco de Mayo and the Kentucky Derby to traditional gatherings such as Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's Eve, and at the venues as diverse as the Arkansas Governor's Mansion and a showstopping horse stable. Copas planned, designed, and executed all events in Arkansas, Tennessee, and Texas during a fifteen-month period.

In each chapter, Copas shares ideas and sources for tabletop settings, mouth-watering recipes from contributing chefs, floral arrangements, and personal touches that are sure to make a lasting memory each holiday. In Copas' spare time, she loves to entertain and cook for friends and family.

Shayla Copas recalls: "Entertaining has always been a part of my life, soul, and purpose. Nothing brings me more joy than to see the love on the faces of treasured friends as they converse and toast throughout the night. Something about a party makes life magical. Also, of course, I always come off that high the next day as I'm scrubbing dishes in the kitchen."

With more than 250 luscious color images photographed by Jane Warlick, this book will elevate readers' creativity as they plan their next luncheon, dinner, or poolside soiree.

Copas will begin her nationwide book tour in April 2019 with appearances at national trade shows, top retailers and department stores where Copas will be speaking, signing books, and hosting private events and cooking demonstrations. Stay tuned on Copas' Instagram account (@shaylacopas) as she announces upcoming events in locations near you.
