

Get Involved in the Academy: Serve as a Constituency Delegate

Kansas Academy of Family Physicians is seeking delegates to the American Academy of Family Physicians National Conference of Constituency Leaders (NCCL), formerly the National Conference of Special Constituencies, to be held Thursday-Saturday, April 30-May 2, 2015, in Kansas City, MO. KAFP is looking for physician members who can represent the following five recognized special constituencies:

- Women physicians—an active member of the AAFP who is a woman.
- Minority family physicians—an active member of the AAFP who is Black, Asian, Hawaiian Islander, American Indian, Eskimo, or Hispanic
- New physicians—an active member of the AAFP who has been in practice less than seven years
- Gay, lesbian, bisexual, and transgender (GLBT) physicians—an active member of the AAFP who self-identifies as GLBT or who is supportive of GLBT issues
- International medical graduate (IMG) physicians—an active member of the AAFP who graduated from medical school outside the United States, Canada, or Puerto Rico

During NCCL you will meet similar family physicians from across the United States, discuss and develop resolutions that shape AAFP policies, and have the chance to be elected for various leadership positions for the next NCCL or as a delegate to the annual AAFP Congress of Delegates. KAFP delegates to the NCCL are reimbursed for eligible expenses (with the submission of a report and receipts) according to the KAFP reimbursement policy.

Delegates are also highly encouraged to attend the KAFP Annual Meeting. If you are interested in serving as a Kansas NCCL Delegate, please email a short statement of interest to Executive Director Carolyn Gaughan no later than Monday, February 9, 2015.
