

SAM Group Learning opportunity: September 11, 2015

Did you miss the SAM Group Learning Session this June? No problem - we have it covered! We are pleased to announce we will again offer the SAM Group Learning Session: Care of the Vulnerable Elderly. The SAM session will be in Manhattan on Friday, September 11 from 1 to 5pm. To register: <https://kafp.wufoo.com/forms/s132fqb604mx6jg/> Please register by August 28, 2015.

This Group Learning Session will help you complete the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM) SAM module on Care of the Vulnerable Elderly, as part of your maintenance of Certification (MC-FP) process. Sheryl Beard, MD is the facilitator.

Participate with colleagues in a distraction-free, focused work environment that fosters interaction and promotes collaboration, while earning CME*.

**To finalize the SAM process and earn CME, the clinical simulation must also be completed on the ABFM website within one year. The registration fee to KAFP is $150 for members/ $250 for non-members. ABFM charges a separate fee. Participants who complete the SAM Group Learning Session and Clinical Simulation earn 12 elective credits.*
