About Family Medicine Midwest

Launched in 2012, the Family Medicine Midwest Foundation is a 510 (c) 3 organization with a core mission of identifying and supporting students interested in family medicine. We are committed to communicating the value of family medicine to practicing colleagues, future colleagues and the public. This conference will capitalize on the momentum of nationwide health care change, to a system that provides access to high quality primary care to improve outcomes and lives for all patients. Together we will:

- Showcase Midwest family medicine residencies
- Provide a forum for scholarly work and research presentations (CV builders!)
- Highlight community-based practice and best practice sharing
- Promote cooperative and collaborative health care innovation and teaching

The Family Medicine Midwest Foundation states are: Illinois, Iowa, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wisconsin.

The Illinois Academy of Family Physicians is the meeting management organization for Family Medicine Midwest.
