By AAFP

Don't forget! The Smoking Cessation Leadership Center (SCLC) and the American Academy of Family Physicians (AAFP) invites you to this free webinar, “An Introduction to Motivational Interviewing: Focus on Tobacco Use and Dependence”, on Wednesday, July 22, 2015, at 2:00pm EDT (90 minutes). For more information: click here

Join Marc L. Steinberg, PhD, Associate Professor of Psychiatry & Associate Director, in Addiction Psychiatry, at Rutgers Robert Wood Johnson Medical School, presenting on this topic. As well, Sarah S. Mullins, MD, Family Physician in Delaware, and member of the AAFP Tobacco Prevention and Control Advisory Committee, will be discussing AAFP's work in tobacco dependence prevention and treatment.

Webinar Objectives:

- Describe how the “spirit” or underlying perspective of motivational interviewing can be applied to smokers
- Explain how to speak with smokers who may not be ready to quit
- Describe how to elicit “change talk” from tobacco users
