

Congratulations to MISAC Award Winners!

Twenty-six Excellence in Information Technology Practices and four Achievement in Information Technology Practices highlighted the awards ceremony held during the 2018 MISAC Annual Conference in Rancho Mirage. In addition, twenty-one certificates for Quality in Information Technology were presented as well as an Innovation Award and two Quality Visual Information certificates.

This year's Excellence Award winners, given to "recognize outstanding practices in information technology that have met or surpassed local government standards, were:

Central Contra Costa Sanitary District IT Division
Central Basin Municipal Water District Information Technology
City of Anaheim Finance
City of Aliso Viejo Information Technology
City of Diamond Bar Information Systems
City of Encinitas IT Applications/Operations
City of Garden Grove Information Technology
City of Huntington Beach Information Services
City of Moreno Valley Technology Services Division
City of Poway Information Technology Division
City of Berkeley Department of Information Technology
City of Concord Information Technology
City of Foster City Information Technology Division
City of Fresno Information Services Department
City of Monterey Information Services Division
City of Richmond Information Technology Department
City of Riverside Innovation & Technology
City of Roseville Information Technology
City of Santa Clara information Technology
City of San Luis Obispo Administration & Information Technology
City of Sunnyvale Information Technology Department
City of Tulare Information Technology Services
City of Walnut Creek Information Technology
Orange County Sanitation District Information Technology
South Tahoe Public Utility District Information Technology
Sweetwater Authority Information Systems

Taking home Achievement Awards, given to "recognize achievement in information technology practices that have met or surpassed local government standards," were:

Alameda County Water District Information Technology Division
City of Coronado Administrative Services Department
City of Irvine Administrative Services
Sacramento Regional Fire EMS Communications Center IT Team

Winner of the Innovation Award was the City of Sunnyvale for “Using GIS In An Innovative Way: Efficient and Transparent ADA Compliance.”

Quality Visual Information Awards, given in “recognition of the development of quality visual information which depicts business information and goals,” were given to:

City of Fresno for Fulton District App and MyFAXBus App
???

Quality IT Practices Awards were awarded to:

Alameda County Water District Information Technology Division
City of Beaumont Information Technology
City of Calabasas IT Division
City of Cerritos Administrative Services
City of Fountain Valley Information Services
City of Fresno Information Services Department
City of Fullerton Administrative Services
City of Hemet Information Technology Department
City of Indio Information Technology
City of Palmdale Information Technology
City of Richmond Information Technology Department
City of Rolling Hills Estates Administrative Services
City of Sunnyvale Information Technology Department
City of Yorba Linda Information Technology Department
Orange County Water District Information Services
Rancho California Water District Information Technology
San Diego City Employees Retirement System Information Technology Division
Santa Ana Watershed Project Authority
Town of Danville Administrative Services
Vallecitos Water District
Western Municipal Water District Information Technology Department