The NABE Journal of Research and Practice (NJRP) is an edited volume of scholarly publications that serves as an archival record for the National Association for Bilingual Education (NABE). It is a peer-reviewed publication that seeks articles that examine research, pedagogy, policies, theory, and cultural issues that impact bilingual education, teaching, and learning. Qualitative, quantitative and mixed methods studies that can contribute to the growing knowledge base on bilingual education models and best practices are especially welcome. Position papers, and articles focused on applied educational research and research infused classroom practices are also welcome. The NJRP publishes articles written in either English or Spanish. The Editorial Board will consider clarity and timeliness of the content in judging the quality of the manuscripts. Beginning on January 2019, the Journal will be published by Taylor and Francis Group, and will be indexed.
