

April 11, 2013

Department: NAGC News

Javits Frasier Scholarship Applications Now Being Accepted

NAGC is looking for teachers, school counselors, or school psychologists who:

- Work in a Title I school,
- Are new to the field of gifted and talented education, or are in a new gifted/talented position
- Have demonstrated a desire and commitment to increase culturally and linguistically diverse students' access to talent development opportunities, and
- Have interests and professional goals aligned with the purpose of this professional growth opportunity and are beneficial to their culturally and linguistically diverse students, school, or community

Scholarship winners receive professional development opportunities that include:

- $500 travel stipend, registration, and lodging to attend the 2013 NAGC Annual Convention in Indianapolis, IN, November 7-10, 2013,
- A two-year NAGC individual membership,
- Participation in a Javits Frasier Scholar discussions with other scholars, members of the NAGC Diversity and Equity Committee, and NAGC leadership, and
- A teaching resource toolkit and personal mentor.

Access the 2013 application, flyer, and complete instructions here. Application deadline is May 15, 2013. Please direct your questions concerning the Javits Frasier Teachers' Scholarship for Diverse Talent Development to Jeff Danielian.