(Special Note: All courses in the NAPT Professional Development Series require special registration. There is no additional cost for these classes but attendance will be limited to the first 50 people to register unless otherwise noted.)

Course 101 - Student Transportation Orientation (PLEASE NOTE: This is an 8-hour course; it ends at 5PM) presented by Barry Sudduth
This eight-hour workshop provides a comprehensive introductory overview of all aspects of contemporary pupil transportation. This course provides the foundation for all of the NAPT Certificate programs.

Course 609 – Accident Investigation (Class Size Limit: 35) (PLEASE NOTE: This is an 8-hour course; it ends at 5PM) presented by Donald Tudor
This eight-hour course provides an overview of all elements of school bus accident investigation, skills needed to manage the scene, reconstruct the accident and much more.

Course 202 - Presentation Skills (Class Size Limit: 35) presented by Cheryl Wolf
A four-hour course on how to prepare and plan a presentation, including how to reduce anxiety, create openers and maintain interest, use visual aids, handle questions, project a polished appearance and present material in a professional manner. This course is highly recommended for all transportation personnel who present safety lessons or do training.

Course 701 - Introduction to Leadership & Management (Class Size Limit: 35) presented by Robert Peters
A four-hour workshop that defines the role of leadership for both experienced and novice managers. The course reviews different leadership models and explains how different models must be used with different individuals and in different circumstances. Learn strategies for developing your work force into a committed team that has the preparation to get the job done right and the creativity to find even better ways to function.

8:00AM-5:00PM  NAPT Leading Every Day Initiative
(Special Note: The LED initiative requires special registration. There is an additional $100 fee for this program and participation is limited to the first 50 people to register.)

The Leading Every Day (LED) Initiative is a special opportunity to focus on leadership development during the annual NAPT Conference. In addition to the exclusive workshops designed for the LED Initiative each year, LED-heads are encouraged to attend specifically designated workshops about leadership and leadership issues throughout the duration of the conference.

Keynote Presentation: Framing the Debate – How to Lead a Grassroots Effort to Bring About Change
A detailed agenda for the 2012 Leading Every Day Initiative will be available online and at the conference registration center!
1:00PM-5:00PM NAPT Professional Development Series

7:00AM-4:00PM  Conference Registration

8:00AM-5:00PM  NAPT Certification Examinations
               8:00AM – 11:00AM and 2:00PM - 5:00PM and other times by appointment

8:30AM-9:15 AM  VIP Conference Orientation
Join the NAPT Board of Directors and staff to review conference highlights and get answers to your questions about the week ahead. This informal session is a great place to learn tips about how to manage your time and plan your personal schedule from the people who planned the conference. This workshop is especially good for new NAPT members and first-time conference attendees.

9:30AM-11:00AM Opening General Session & Keynote Presentation
9:30AM-10:30AM The Importance of Performance-Based Management (LED Recommended)
               featuring Michael Eugene
Michael Eugene is Chief Operating Officer (COO) of the Orange County Public Schools (OCPS), the 10th largest school system in the nation. Earlier this year, OCPS won the “Managing for Results Achievement Award” from the Council of Great City Schools, an organization representing more than 60 of the largest, urban school districts in the United States. Learn why and how OCPS Operations Departments are performance-based, and therefore deliver higher-quality services at lower costs compared to other large school districts across the country.

10:30AM-12:00PM NAPT KPI Project Status Report
               presented by Jeffrey Oehm, Kenny Mulder, John Fahey, Robert Streeter, Michael Shields and Peter Lawrence
Last November, NAPT launched an initiative to establish industry-wide operational benchmarks and define key indicators of performance. In the time since, a team of dedicated volunteers has been meeting and talking every week to move this project forward. Learn about their discoveries, their frustrations, their accomplishments and their remaining goals and objectives in this candid progress report.

12:00PM-1:15PM Lunch on own

1:15PM-5:15PM Breakout Sessions – 4 separate workshops for small groups

1:15PM-2:05PM “You Said What?” Correcting Missteps in Special Needs Transportation (SNT 106)
               Presented by Dr. Linda Bluth
Have you ever heard the old saying that “You control the thoughts in your head but they belong to the world when they leave your mouth.”? Learn real world examples that illustrate the adage “truer words have never been spoken”. (In order to receive SNT credit, participants will be required to complete a course-specific assignment.)

2:10PM-3:00PM Travel Training for Student Success
               Featuring Dr. Judy Shanley
NAPT has partnered with Easter Seals Project ACTION (ESPA) to promote transportation education, including “travel training”, which helps students with disabilities acquire the skills needed to travel safely and independently on fixed-route public transportation, including school buses. Join us on a “field trip” that will explain why and how your transportation department, working collaboratively with educators and public transit, should consider developing transportation education program that will play a vital role in the long-term success of students with special needs in your community.

3:10PM-4:00PM The Current and Future Importance of Standardized School Bus Specifications
               Presented by Mike Kenney and Marshall Casey with special thanks for the generous financial support of TMW Systems, Inc.
This workshop will explain the complexity of building a school bus that meets federal standards, national standards, state specifications and local district/user requirements, which conflict more than you may realize.
4:00PM-5:15PM  What Have We Learned in the Last 50 Years About Training School Bus Drivers?
Presented by Peter Lawrence and Dick Fischer

Have you ever wondered why we do some of the things we do to train school bus drivers? Join us for a fun-filled journey that explores the roots of our work today. A recently discovered school bus training safety film from the 1950s will be unveiled at this session.

1:15PM-4:30PM  Blockbuster Workshops

1:15PM-2:45PM  KPI's for the Small School District
presented by John Fahey and Robert Streeter

87% of school districts in America have 5,000 or less in enrollment. Hear practical suggestions from the NAPT KPI Project Team that will enable you to meet the challenges of integrating key performance indicators in your daily work with a small staff.

Managing Special Needs Student Behaviors: Transportation Challenges (SNT 105 – Part 1)
presented by Alexandra Robinson

Take an in-depth look at behavior management strategies that work with students of all ages. The emphasis is on best practices for supporting a safe school bus environment by utilizing effective behavior management strategies for a variety of different disability populations.
(Special Note: If you are taking this class for SNT Credit there is a $15 fee for the course completion certificate. If not, there is no additional cost for this class but attendance may be limited. Please visit www.napt.org/Summit for SNT registration. In order to receive SNT credit, participants will be required to complete a course-specific assignment.)

3:00PM-4:30PM  Wisdom of the Ages: A Panel Discussion with Former Presidents of NAPT

A man named Laurence Peter once said “There is only one thing more painful than learning from experience, and that is not learning from experience.” Join us for a fascinating round table discussion with former Presidents of NAPT who will share with you their thoughts and perspective on the experiences they have had over the last 50 years.

Managing Special Needs Student Behaviors: Transportation Challenges (SNT 105 – Part 2)

8:30AM–12:00PM  General Session and Keynote Presentations

Christopher A. Hart, NTSB Vice Chairman  (LED Recommended)

NTSB Vice Chairman Christopher A. Hart was sworn in as a Member of the National Transportation Safety Board on August 12, 2009, and is the current Vice Chairman of the Board. He is the former Deputy Director for Air Traffic Safety Oversight at the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) and was also the FAA Assistant Administrator for the Office of System Safety. He has also served as Deputy Administrator of the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration. He will share with you his thoughts about troubling transportation safety trends.

Anne S. Ferro – FMCSA ADMINISTRATOR  (LED Recommended)

Administrator Anne Ferro of the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration is committed to protecting the traveling public by eliminating severe crashes and fatalities involving large trucks and buses. Ms. Ferro serves as the head of an agency that carries out its safety mission to raise the bar for motor carrier safety; require high safety standards to operate, and remove unsafe carriers and drivers from our roads. Administrator Ferro will discuss notable actions by her agency to prevent crashes and fatalities involving large trucks and buses.

School Transportation Excellence: A Global Imperative

Learn about our global outreach to help other countries achieve excellence in school transportation, particularly our partnership with the Emirate of Dubai.

The Dangers of Distracted Driving: The Important and Enduring Legacy of Hunter Pitt

Presented by Shirley Francis, Matthew and Kimberly Pitt

Hunter Pitt, a 6 year old kindergartner at Williamsburg K-8 in North Callaway, MO, was killed in January 2011 when his school bus ran over him moments after he exited the vehicle in front of his house. In the aftermath of this tragedy, his mother and father worked with the MO Association for Pupil Transportation, MO Department of Public Safety/Center for Education Safety, MO Department of Elementary and Secondary Education (DESE) and the MO School Boards Association to create a powerful video that explains not only how and why the fatality happened, but also highlights the danger of distracted driving. See the video, meet these amazing parents, and remember forever the important and enduring legacy of Hunter Pitt.

12:00PM-1:00PM  Lunch on own

1:00PM-5:00PM  Breakout Sessions- 4 separate workshops for small groups

1:00PM-1:50PM  Public School Transportation in the UAE – A Success Story

Featuring Mr. Bader Al Kamali, Director, Emirates Transport

Emirates Transport, a unique federal government corporation in the United Arab Emirates (UAE), has been sending representatives to the NAPT Summit for years. Did you know they transport more than 200,000 students daily? Did you know they have one of the most modern school bus fleets in the world? Learn more about this unique federal government corporation and ask questions about the services they provide.

2:00PM-2:50PM  Hot Topics in Special Education (SNT 106)

Featuring Linda Bluth

Don't miss this workshop if you want to keep abreast of "danger areas" that other districts are encountering in special education. This session will provide a review of recent court decisions and other "hot topics" that are generating questions, concern, or confusion about the rights of disabled students under IDEA and Section 504 and administrative hearings regarding student residency and discipline issues. (In order to receive SNT credit, participants will be required to complete a course-specific assignment.)

3:00PM-3:50PM  Collateral Damage – How Managers Contribute to Distracted Driving
Featuring Kathleen Furneaux

This workshop highlights the things that managers do to contribute to the distraction of their drivers and discuss how to avoid them.

4:00PM-4:50PM  Keys to Writing Clearly and Correctly
Presented by Thomas McMahon

Writing clearly and correctly is always important, particularly in school transportation. Whether it’s developing department policies or training materials, preparing a presentation for district administrators, or composing e-mail, using the right words is essential to making sure an important message won’t be misunderstood.

1:00PM-5:00PM  Blockbuster Workshops

1:00PM-2:45PM  Student Misbehavior Management: How to Respond When Bullying is Seen or Heard
Featuring Dr. Allan Beane and Chris Ellison

Do you know the eight steps bus drivers should take when they see or hear bullying on their buses? A video of a bullying situation on a school bus will be examined to show how responding early to bullying could have prevented a shooting on a bus or a bus hostage situation. Participants will also observe a bus driver responding appropriately to bullying.

Special Needs Transportation – SNT 101 (Part 1)
Presented by Cheryl Wolf & Linda Bluth

This 2-part seminar begins by explaining the legal basis for special needs transportation and uses interactive discussion to explain definitions of transportation and related Special Education terms in accordance with the requirements of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) 2004; Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act and the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act of 2008; and the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act regulations. (Special Note: If you are taking this class for SNT Credit there is a $15 fee for the course completion certificate. If not, there is no additional cost for this class but attendance may be limited. Please visit www.napt.org/Summit for SNT registration.)

3:00PM-4:45PM  The Importance of Training EVERYONE on a School Bus (SNT 106)
Featuring Peggy Burns, Esq.

In the wake of several high-profile incidents involving bus drivers and monitors, it is important to examine your training programs, including your student training programs. Learn whether you have the necessary policies and procedures in place and examine your training itself - is it state of the art, or not? (In order to receive SNT credit, participants will be required to complete a course-specific assignment.)

Special Needs Transportation – SNT 101 (Part 2)
Presented by Cheryl Wolf & Linda Bluth

The second half of this cornerstone seminar has a specific focus on the characteristics of children with special needs and special considerations for transporting children with special needs, including a discussion of the Individualized Education Program (IEP) in relationship to the related services transportation. (Special Note: If you are taking this class for SNT Credit there is a $15 fee for the course completion certificate. If not, there is no additional cost for this class but attendance may be limited. Please visit www.napt.org/Summit for SNT registration.)

1:00PM-5:00PM  NAPT Professional Development Series
(Special Note: All courses in the NAPT Professional Development Series require special registration. There is no additional cost for these classes but attendance will be limited to the first 50 people to register, unless otherwise noted.)
Course 504 - School Bus Manufacturing presented by Cliff Berchtold

Why are school buses constructed in the manner they are? What is the bus chassis construction process? How are the bus bodies made? This general overview of the bus manufacturing process will answer these questions and many more.

Course 505 - School Facility Planning presented by Ted Finlayson-Schueler

Please note: This course is available only at the NAPT Annual Summit.

A four-hour workshop designed to familiarize the transportation manager with topics to consider when evaluating an existing, or planning a new, school bus loading or unloading zone. This course will discuss different types of schools, users, parking areas, construction considerations and placement concerns. The class is highly recommended for anyone planning or embarking on a school facility construction project.

7:00PM Theme Night Dinner and Party

Co-sponsored by NAPT and Thomas Built Buses

NAPT and Thomas Built Buses are pleased to bring you an evening of NFL football featuring dinner, music and dancing. Wear the jersey (or the entire uniform) of your favorite team (regardless of the sport) and join the fun of rooting for (or against) the teams in the Monday night football matchup. (Dress Code: Casual)
Alan Brunacini, former Chief of the Phoenix (AZ) Fire Department, has been described as “one of the legendary fire chiefs” in America. Why? Because of his Added Value Leadership. According to Chief Brunacini, “The customer mostly remembers how they were treated – they generally do not remember the technical part of receiving service. How the boss treats the worker will get delivered to the customer... It's really pretty simple: if the boss wants the worker to deliver added value, the boss must also add value.” Learn why and how Chief Alan Brunacini’s leadership philosophy can help you add value in your community.

Do you know where student behavior management ends and law enforcement begins? Recent high-profile incidents have blurred the line of demarcation. We have therefore assembled a panel of experts who will discuss this seemingly ubiquitous and troubling topic. (In order to receive SNT credit, participants will be required to complete a course-specific assignment.)

The goal of this session is to explore the pluses and minuses of using data to analyze and manage transportation programs. Panelists will share their experiences in using data to manage their own operations.

Melinda Jacobs is an attorney in private practice who has worked in the field of special education law since 1985. Since 1996, she has exclusively represented school systems in special education matters pursuant to the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and related laws. Her “down to earth” and practical presentation style, combining humor and song, makes legal information accessible and understandable for educators, parents, and other professionals in the field. (In order to receive SNT credit, participants will be required to complete a course-specific assignment.)

Please note: There is no official dinner/supper provided by NAPT this evening. There are, however, two events we encourage you to attend...
9:00PM-11:00PM  A Bedtime Snack Costume Party
   Sponsored by Zonar Systems
All conference Delegates & registered Guests are invited to put on their “jammies” (or a costume!) and attend this unique, fun-filled networking reception before heading off to sleep.

Course 401 - Managing Human Resources I (Maximum Class Size: 35) presented by Michael Shields
This four-hour course is a must for transportation professionals with human resource responsibilities. Topics include the legal framework of human resource management, including due process, equal protection and non-discrimination, disability law, leave of absence, drug testing, record management, wage and working conditions, collective bargaining, employment eligibility and retention.

Course 405 - Student Needs & Management (Maximum Class Size: 35) presented by Peter Lawrence
A four-hour look at student behavior issues from the management perspective. A brief review of “normal” student characteristics and behavior management strategies is followed by an in-depth look at preparing drivers and attendants for student management, working within the school district structure, developing district policy, procedures, and forms, and understanding nuances of working with students with disabilities and children from other cultures.

Course 506 - Transportation Facility Planning presented by Denny Coughlin
Please note: This course is available only at the NAPT Annual Summit.
This course will familiarize transportation managers with many areas of a school transportation facility, and provide an overview of needs to be considered for a new facility design or renovation project. The course is intended to bring forth a number of issues that should be considered by school transportation representatives when working with qualified architects and building codes officials on the new design or renovation of a transportation facility.
1:00PM-2:30PM  Blockbuster Workshops

Social Media: Boost or Bust?
Speakers to be announced
‘Getting social’ doesn’t mean what it used to...whether it’s Facebook, Twitter, Pinterest, or YouTube, it’s much easier and quicker to communicate with people today. The technology, however, can sometimes be confounding; it can boost your bottom line and your reputation but it can also create a minefield of public relations nightmares. Join us for an insightful session that will help you manage the options.

Wither the Weather: What to Do Before and After Disaster Strikes
Speakers to be announced
Tornados, hurricanes, fires, floods, mud slides, blizzards and earthquakes seem to happen far more frequently these days. Learn how to cope with the severe weather that seems to be ubiquitous these days.

2:45PM–4:15PM
The Bully Project: 1 Million Kids
NAPT has partnered with The Bully Project, which is bringing the award winning documentary, “Bully” to young people and their educators across the U.S. and Canada in order to improve school climate and promote caring, inclusive school communities that emphasize respect for all. Learn how you can get involved in the “1 Million Kids” movement and help make a positive difference for young people everywhere. (LED Recommended)

4:15PM–5:00PM  Closing Ceremonies and Final Business Session
Join us at our closing ceremonies and Second Business Session for an announcement of the results of NAPT Elections and the 2012 School Bus Safety Poster Contest as well as recognition of individuals who have received professional certification from NAPT.

7:00PM  Theme Night Dinner and Party
Hosted by NAPT & IC Bus
All conference Delegates & registered Guests are invited to join us for a fun-filled night featuring dinner, great music, dancing and lots of other entertainment. This event is our traditional way to “turn off the lights & close the door” on an action-packed week and celebrate the things that make every NAPT Conference unique. (Dress Code: Casual)
