

NC National Guard Association

Press Release

Raleigh, NC- The North Carolina National Guard Association would like to announce the first in a series of “Town Hall meetings”. The first event will be held at the NC National Guard Joint Force Headquarters on Tuesday, March 1, 2016 at 2pm in the auditorium. It will focus on the Connect NC bond and what it means to the National Guard. Key Leaders from State Government and the National Guard will be on hand to offer an informational briefing followed by a question and answer period from the audience. All NCNGA members or those interested in learning more about the Connect NC bond referendum that will appear on the March Ballot are welcomed to attend. Seating is limited and you must have a valid photo identification to enter the Joint Force Headquarters complex.

The next NCNGA Town Hall Meeting will be held during the NCNGA Annual Convention April 29-30th at the Sheraton Four Seasons/Koury Center in Greensboro, NC and will feature state and federal candidates running for elected office.

The NCNGA mission is to garner support for the NC National Guard's Role in state and national security and improve members' quality of life. For more information on the NCNGA visit us on the web at www.ncnga.org and we invite you to join our "North Carolina National Guard Association" Facebook page and follow us on Twitter at @NCNGA or phone at 919-851-3390.

###