Access Capital Expands the Team, Makes Promotions

New York, NY, June 14, 2017. Access Capital, a leading New York based commercial finance company, today announced the promotions of John Belling and David Hill as well as the hiring of Mark Gordon. Both Belling and Hill have been members of the Access Capital team and worked together for years in the Account Management Department. John Belling's previous position was Team Leader in that department and he was recently promoted to the role of Portfolio Manager. David Hill worked at Access Capital as an Account Manager before being promoted to Team Leader. In addition, Access Capital added Mark Gordon to the team who will serve as an Account Manager, specializing in servicing the Company's west coast clientele.

John Belling joined Access Capital in 2003 and served for eight years as Team Leader. John began his career in 1993, working for the Credit Finance division of The CIT Group. Following CIT, John worked at Fremont Financial in Santa Monica, CA in Auditing and Account Management. John later joined Access Capital following a period of time as an independent field examiner, working for such clients as Bank of America, Finova Capital and Access Capital. He lives on Long Island with his wife and two children.

"It has been my privilege to work with such a talented and knowledgeable group for the past fifteen years. The entrepreneurial spirit of management has cultivated a client-forward environment that values solutions over bureaucracy, which allows our portfolio team to be decisive and responsive to the ever changing needs of our clients." John Belling, Portfolio Manager

David Hill joined Access Capital in 2009 after working in portfolio management roles at Wachovia Capital Finance and Greystone & Co. Hill began his career in public accounting before transitioning to working in lending. Before his most recent promotion, David Hill filled the role of Vice President – Account Manager. He is a graduate of SUNY Binghamton University and lives on Long Island with his wife and two daughters.

"Luckily, this new opportunity will allow me to continue my day-to-day involvement with Access Capital clients. My new role will expand my duties to now work directly with Access Capital's Account Management team and to develop and manage the overall growth and evolution of that department." David Hill, Team Leader

Mark Gordon started his career path at CIT Credit Finance where he worked as an Assistant Account Executive. Gordon then transitioned to public accounting at Richard A. Eisner & Company (now EisnerAmper LLP). Mark then moved to San Francisco and was an audit manager for KPMG before starting his own business as a field examiner for asset based lending transactions. Gordon holds a degree from Brooklyn College and currently resides in California with his wife.

"I am very excited to join Access Capital. Having enjoyed working closely with a number of members of the Company for some time, it was a logical step for me to become part of the team. I look forward to working with the people at Access Capital as Account Manager and am thankful for the opportunity to manage the west coast accounts." Mark Gordon, Account Manager
