PCA Club Racing heats up an unseasonably cold Lime Rock Park

Columbia MD— The snow and sleet cleared the area by Friday, but conditions were still not what one would expect for late April at Lime Rock Park. Racers in all classes were fighting for grip and to get tires into operating temperature all weekend.

Daniel Yonker flirted with the magic minute milestone in SPB while battling it out with Jason Woz all weekend. Evan Close was found in his usual position, battling for championship points at the pointy end of E stock. Bill Johnson and Roger Halvorsen took home the highly coveted Worker's Choice awards for their efforts in their SP1 944 and GTB1 respectively. Ron Savenor (below) was impressive all weekend taking a GTC3 class victory and podium in the 511 and was at the front of the field throughout the weekend.
