

PIA National's Webb on NIPR Board

The National Insurance Producer Registry (NIPR) has appointed Jenn Webb, Esq. as the National Association of Professional Insurance Agents (PIA) representative on the NIPR Board of Directors.

NIPR board president and New Hampshire Insurance Commissioner Roger Sevigny said, "We are pleased to welcome Jenn to the board. Her industry insight will be a valuable asset as we move forward in our efforts to simplify and enhance the producer licensing process."

Webb is the National Counsel and Director of Regulatory Affairs for PIA. She is the former director of legislative affairs for Nolan Associates, where she managed legislative relations for the National Conference of Insurance Legislators (NCOIL) and the National Conference of Legislators from Gaming States (NCLGS).

Others in the PIA Western Alliance states on the NIPR board:

- Scott Kipper, Nevada Insurance Commissioner
- Monica Lindeen, Montana Commissioner of Insurance & Securities
