

Welcome to Sonoma, California Wine Country

Looking for affordable luxury in one of the country's premiere wine country destinations? Look no further. These two charming hotels offer ideal locations, situated amid premier wineries and a breathtaking array of recreational opportunities.

Family-owned and operated, the Best Western Sonoma Valley Inn is the perfect expression of the casual, friendly, hometown warmth that defines Sonoma Wine Country. Located steps from Sonoma Plaza, the Sonoma Valley Inn allows you to experience it all without having to stray far from your spacious room. From majestic redwoods and rolling hills to boutiques, cafes, live music and festivals, this friendly, inviting town has something for everyone. The hotel offers a generous collection of contemporary amenities including free Wi-Fi, complimentary breakfast, a business center, fitness room, heated saltwater pool, sauna and hot tub.

The Best Western Dry Creek Inn is a Tuscan-style getaway in Healdsburg, in the northern stretch of beautiful Sonoma County. Whether you're an oenophile or crave outdoor adventure, this hotel is a short drive from beautiful wineries and vineyards, incredible restaurants, hot air balloon rides, cultural centers, historic landmarks, and spectacular golf courses. Discover miles of scenic parks for hiking, biking, and canoeing, family picnics and outdoor adventures on the Russian River and Lake Sonoma. Browse the art galleries and antique stores or take in a concert at historic Healdsburg Plaza. Amenities include complimentary Wi-Fi and breakfast. Lounge by two pools, energize in the fitness center, or unwind in the steam room or sauna..

These hotels offer savvy travelers everything they could ask for in affordable luxury-terrific locations, beautifully appointed rooms and top customer service.
