

Curriculum Vitae

Dr. med. Astrid Bühren

Specialist in Psychosomatic Medicine and Psychotherapy, practice in Murnau
Honorary President of the German Medical Women's Association (DÄB), President 1997-2009
Vice Chair of the assembly of representatives to the regional Association of Statutory Health Insurance Physicians Bavaria
Deputy German Society of Gender Medicine
Board member of Hartmannbund-German Association of Physicians

MWIA – Congress Participations:

1987 20th Congress Sorrento, Italy
1989 21st Congress Seoul, Korea
1992 22nd Congress Guatemala City, Guatemala
1995 23rd Congress The Hague, The Netherlands
2001 25th Congress Sydney, Australia
2004 26th Congress Tokyo, Japan
2007 27th Congress Accra, Ghana
2010 28th Congress Münster, Germany

Positions held in MWIA:

Delegate of DÄB to Young Forum
NC on DÄB board
Member of the Ethics & Resolution Committee

1999-2007 board member of the German Medical Association (BÄK) BÄK delegate to the World Medical Association, WMA:

2002 Washington, USA
2004 Tokyo, Japan
2005 Santiago, Chile
2006 Pilanesberg, South Africa

CV - Private and Professional

Since 1993	Married, with one daughter, who also practises medicine and one son, who works in the United States Specialist in psychosomatic medicine and psychotherapy, practising in Murnau/Upper Bavaria Consultant at Berufsgenossenschaftliche Unfallklinik (Trauma Center) Murnau
1985-90	Saarland University, Institute for Human Genetics, Homburg Further Education in Medical Genetics
1975/76	Academic Year in the United Kingdom on a scholarship of the German National Academic Foundation
1971-77	Medical Studies at Hannover Medical University
1952-71	Birth and school education in Peine / Lower Saxony

contact

mobile phone: +49 171 898 09 65 or landline: +49 8841 2703
email: abuehren@t-online.de