

Beth Haney DNP, FNP-C

Dr. Beth Haney is an Assistant Clinical Professor of Nursing Science at University of California, Irvine, (UCI) and serves as Immediate Past President of the California Association for Nurse Practitioners (CANP). Dr. Haney has been selected as a Fellow of the American Academy of Nurse Practitioners for her work in policy and education and will be inducted June 2016.

Dr. Haney is a board certified family nurse practitioner who graduated from Loma Linda University with undergraduate and Master's degrees in 2000 and earned her Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) degree at University of Colorado, Colorado Springs in 2010. Beth is the owner and founder of a private aesthetics/wellness practice since 2006 and is well known in the industry for her expertise and regulatory acumen; consequently serving as an expert witness in a variety of legal cases.

Beth developed the first and only UCI inter-professional aesthetic courses for health care professionals and was awarded UCI 2013 Faculty of the Year. Additionally she works in college health and lectures at state and national conferences on primary-care, aesthetics, leadership and business. Dr. Haney is a contributing author of the Wolters Kluwer title, Dermatology Nursing Essentials: A Core Curriculum, 3rd edition (2016), authored a book on aesthetic procedures, Be You-T-Full: Looking Your Best With Botox, Lasers and other Magical Cosmetic Treatments (2012), and has authored several peer-reviewed articles for advanced practice journals.

Outside of nursing, Dr. Haney serves on the board of the YMCA, Orange County with the goal of promoting the NP profession to state and national organizations that value health promotion and disease prevention through education and programs that encourage optimal health for communities.