

Michelle (“Micki”) Morris
Rogers, Morris & Grover, LLP
Phone: (713) 960-6009
mmorris@rmgllp.com

Ms. Morris is a partner with the firm, and heads the firm’s Business and Facilities law section, which covers the areas of real estate, land use and development, construction, public procurement and contracts, technology and general business for the firms’ government sector clients. She joined the firm in 1999, and has focused her practice in these specialized areas for the past 19 years. She has extensive experience in all aspects of public procurement and contracting, and provides procurement consulting and training to school districts, charter schools, junior colleges and other governmental entities throughout the State. She also assists clients with all phases of bond planning, land acquisition, site development and construction. In addition to preparing all types of procurement, real estate and construction documents, she provides guidance to her education clients through all aspects of land use and development, including leasing, infrastructure development agreements, permitting, platting, eminent domain/condemnation, environmental compliance, facilities design, prevailing wage and bonding law compliance, facilities maintenance/operations, technology and energy matters. Ms. Morris is a certification course instructor for the Texas Association of School Business Officials (TASBO) in the areas of procurement, facilities construction and maintenance. Ms. Morris is admitted to practice before all Texas Courts, and is also admitted to practice before U.S. District Courts in the Southern and Eastern Districts of Texas, as well as the Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.

Education and Honors: Texas A&M University, College Station, Texas (B.A., International Studies/Economics 1994); South Texas College of Law (J.D. 1997); While in law school, Ms. Morris was a three-time national champion for the Varsity Moot Court Team, and served as the Notes Editor for the International Trade Law Journal. She was also the recipient of the Outstanding Female Graduate Award and the Dean's Outstanding Advocate Award. She has been named a Rising Star in the Texas Super Lawyers publication.

Professional Affiliations: State Bar of Texas (School Law Section, Construction Law Section, Real Estate Law Section); TASBO Certification Instructor; Texas Council of School Attorneys; Order of the Barristers Fraternity.

