

2016 EAPA AWARD WINNERS

Best Delivery of CIR services

given to an EAP for exceptional response following a critical incident.

Morneau Shepell - EAP based in Canada – CIR services provided in aftermath of largest and costliest natural disaster in Canadian history, a wild fire in Alberta, Canada

Best Use of Technology in EA Award

given to an EAP, a chapter, branch, individual or entrepreneur for cutting edge use of technology in the delivery of EA services.

Bon Secours Richmond EAP - based in Virginia – sophisticated use of cutting edge technology permeates every aspect of EAP service delivery.

EAP Quality Award

honors an EAP Program that demonstrates adherence to the EAPA Standards and Guidelines for EAP Programs and includes an exemplary continuous quality improvement component.

China National Petroleum Corporation – EAP covers 20,000 Chinese employees working in Africa, the Middle East, Central Asia, and Latin America

EAPA Advertiser/Exhibitor/Sponsor/Exhibitor Award

given to a 2016 advertiser/exhibitor/sponsor who has a track record of providing exceptional support to EAPA

Harting EAP

EAPA Making It Happen Award

given to a remarkable individual who has done something truly exceptional to help EAPA in its mission.

Alex Shukoff – EAPA conference photographer for decades and creator of the beloved conference slide show

EAPA Member of the Year

honors a current EAPA member for outstanding contribution to EAPA within the last 24 months.

Boyd Scoggins, CEAP – Alabama chapter officer

EAPA Newcomer Recognition Award

given to a new member who has made an impact at chapter/branch/national level of the association in driving EAPA membership, visibility and/or growth.

Christian Ellis-Frederick, CEAP, Indianapolis, IN., president-elect of Indiana chapter

Emeritus Member

Honorary membership category. The individual must be retired from any active paid EA work and have served EAPA in at least two elected or appointed positions at the chapter, branch, or international level.

John Maynard, CEAP, Colorado chapter

Randi Wood, CEAP, Colorado chapter

Excellence in EA Business Development

rewards marketing, communication or advertising campaigns, content marketing, website, blog, social media, and other efforts that promote employee assistance.

Mary Olsen, NYC chapter

Hennessy Scholarship Winners

receive two full registrations to attend the conference

Dr. Marcellinus Nwaogu, Lagos, Nigeria (non-labor affiliated)

Abby Alconcher, Chicago, Illinois, USA (labor affiliated)

Lifetime Achievement Award

honors an EAPA member who has made a significant contribution to EAPA and the EA profession over an extended period of time.

Donald Jorgensen, CEAP, Tucson, AZ, Arizona chapter

Outstanding Branch Award

Metropolitan Tokyo Branch

Outstanding Chapter Award

South Carolina Chapter

President's Award

awarded by outgoing EAPA president Lucy Henry to an individual who has helped make her term in office successful.

John Waller, CEAP, North Carolina Chapter

Ross Von Wiegand Award

honors an individual supporter of labor who exemplifies exceptional cooperation and working relationships.

Charley Galassini, CEAP, IBEW LOCAL 701, Plainfield, IL, NIEAPA chapter