

From the Executive Director

Dear Friends,

It was a pleasure to attend the AAFP's Annual Leadership Conferences last week with our Kansas delegation who are listed in the article "KAFP delegation participates in ACLF & NCCL." We are very fortunate to have an engaging national organization that cares about underrepresented groups and tries to represent everyone. And to have volunteer leaders to attend these conferences.

It was a special pleasure for me this year: I got to introduce our new Deputy Executive Director, Michelle Corkins, to many colleagues and friends. I hope YOU'LL be at the KAFP Annual Meeting and meet Michelle at that time, if not before. She is going to be great!

Best wishes to you as we wrap up the Academy cycle with our Annual Meeting. These are busy days with many graduations, weddings, and other events. I greatly appreciate you who are able to attend meetings like ACLF, NCCL, and the Annual Meeting. That makes ours a strong, healthy & caring organization! Not to mention Kansas grown.

Sincerely,
