

Learn how to transform your clinical practice with Innovation Day: May 24

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services

Are you a clinician or health care professional who wants to:

- Maximize your understanding of Medicare reimbursement changes?
- Utilize quality measures and use the data for practice improvement?
- Optimize the health outcomes of your patients?
- Strategize with like-minded health care professionals on practice efficiencies?

If you answered “yes” to any of these questions, then you need to take part in Innovation Day on May 24th to learn from leaders in practice transformation!

The live event is in Baltimore, Maryland but you can watch on youtube without registering, just tune in on May 24:
