The SAM Group Learning sessions help you complete the American Board of Family Medicine (ABFM) SAM module as part of your maintenance of Certification (MC-FP) process. Participate with colleagues in a distraction-free, focused work environment that fosters interaction and promotes collaboration, while earning CME*. Details:

To finalize the SAM process and earn CME, the clinical simulation must also be completed on the ABFM website within one year. The registration fee to KAFP is $150 for members/ $250 for non-members. ABFM charges a separate fee. Participants who complete the SAM Group Learning Session and Clinical Simulation earn 12 elective credits.*
