

MULTILITERACY AND DUAL LANGUAGE LEARNING SYMPOSIUM

September 23, 2016

8:30am - 3:30pm

Why Multiliteracy?

You are invited to join us in exploring this question with national experts in research, practice, policy and business communities. State and district leaders will be featured in addition to a panel of teachers, parents and students who will share their perspectives on dual language learning approaches.

Secretary John King will recognize Governors and State Education Chiefs from those states that have adopted the Seal of Biliteracy as a message to promote multiliteracy and dual language learning for all.
