

National Trig-Star Committee Selects Winners of the Richard E. Lomax National Trig-Star and Teaching Excellence Awards

The National Society of Professional Surveyors (NSPS) is pleased to announce the recipients of the 2018 Richard E. Lomax National Trig-Star Awards. The Trig-Star committee met on July 6, 2018 to determine the three top high school students from the national examinations submitted by state winners. This year there were thirty-four state winners submitted. A past president of NSPS, Richard Lomax was the driving force behind the elevation of the local Trig-Star program to the national level. In October 1994, Board action named this high school trigonometry skill award in his honor.

The Richard E. Lomax National Trig-Star Awards are as follows:

First Place: Austin Mazenko, Cherry Creek High School, Greenwood Village, Colorado
Second Place: Taryn Trigler, Ben Eielson Sr. High School, Eielson AFB, Alaska
