

SCAPTA CONFERENCE in CHARLESTON – Registration is Open!

Program: Click here to review course descriptions, objectives, and speaker bios.

Registration: Upon reviewing the program, click here to download the mailer registration form or click here to register online.

Before registering, read these important details:

- Review the program to learn more about each session
- Registration is required, regardless of what you plan to attend
- Registration will include: Attendance of your pre-selected courses and events, access to the exhibit hall, platform and poster presentations, and job fair, attendance at the Business Meeting with lunch.
- Lunch and the Business Meeting are free but require registration. You do not have to attend an educational session to come to the business meeting and lunch, but you must select that you are coming to the Business Meeting and Lunch so that we can be certain to have enough food and seating available. 1 CEU is offered for those who register for the business meeting.
- You must complete your checkout even if no payment is required
- Parking must be selected to guarantee a spot and the discounted rate is per car
- PAC donations are optional
- If you have to create an account and you find the screen doesn't return you to the conference registration after creating an account, re-select the link to start from the top. But, you will now sign in with your new account information
- Attending the exhibit hall will include an opportunity to win cash
- Exhibitors, recruiters, and sponsors will provide gift items for a drawing to be held during the lunch and business meeting
- Friday's meet and greet and social time will include hors d'oeuvres and drinks but the pub crawl afterwards is at each attendee's own expense; Saturday's happy hour at a local restaurant is at each attendee's own expense
- Anyone can attend the job fair, but you must register and select this to attend
- Early-bird registration ends March 18. Registration after this date must be done onsite and rates will increase.

Sponsors, recruiters, equipment providers: If you have an interest in sponsoring a course or event, attending as a recruiter, or presenting equipment at the conference, please complete this prospectus and send it in as soon as possible. Space is limited. Upon receipt of your completed prospectus and payment, you will receive a special registration link that will allow you to attend sessions and events at the conference.

Thanks to our exhibitors, recruiters, and sponsors!
