FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

THE TEXAS HOUSING HALL OF HONOR CALL FOR NOMINATIONS OPENS

(AUSTIN, TX) April 6, 2011 – Nominations for the 2011 Texas Housing Hall of Honor are now being accepted. Hosted by the Texas Association of Builders (TAB), the Texas Housing Hall of Honor celebrates men and women who have made significant and lasting contributions to the Texas housing industry. Inductees are selected annually from the categories of: builders, developers or remodelers; trades professionals and suppliers; government; and, industry-allied professionals.

Thirteen legends grace the walls of the Texas Housing Hall of Honor to date. The contributions of these men and women have resulted in the long-term advancement of the residential construction industry in Texas.

Inductees for the 2011 Texas Housing Hall of Honor will be formally recognized during a ceremony on October 22, 2011 at the Four Seasons Hotel in Austin, TX. The Hall of Honor's black-tie reception along with the Excellence in Leadership Dinner is the grand finale to the Sunbelt Builders Show™.

The Texas Association of Builders is a non-profit organization with almost 10,000 members, serving the needs of home builders and remodelers throughout Texas, as well as the companies that service them. This is the fourth year of the Texas Housing Hall of Honor. To view a list of previous honorees, and to submit a nomination, please visit www.TexasBuilders.org. Nominations will be accepted until 5 p.m. on June 1, 2011.

Founded in 1946, the Texas Association of Builders is an affiliate of the National Association of Home Builders and has 34 local home builders associations across Texas. Representing almost 10,000 members, 550,000 jobs and $35 billion of the Texas economy, the state and local associations play a crucial role in providing housing for Texans.
