

Make plans now to attend the

2014 Annual Meeting & Equine Symposium

January 22 - 26, 2014 Portland, Oregon

Hosted by the Oregon Region

If you are a club, center or regional volunteer, you won't want to miss this. With MORE time for leadership and job skills training than ever before, the 2014 Annual Meeting will be THE place to be in January. Whether you are an Annual Meeting veteran or brand new to Pony Club, you will be amazed and inspired by the experience. Sessions specifically for all DCs, JtDCs, CAs, ACAs, RSs, and VRSs will begin on Thursday morning, and will continue throughout the weekend including Saturday and Sunday workshops just for you!

Be sure to visit the Annual Meeting webpage on the Pony Club site for hotel, ground travel and Portland visitor's details.

Leadership Training

Sessions specifically for DCs, CAs and RSs will be held starting on Thursday. Some weekend workshops will even be geared towards Club and Regional Secretaries and Treasurers. If you will be holding one of these positions in 2014, be sure to attend.

Workshop Tracks

*Workshops for club, center and regional leaders are planned for Saturday and Sunday.
Topics for you will include Using Robert's Rules, Growing Your Club and Identifying Personalities in Your Club.*

Meeting of the Corporation

Join the Corporate Members of USPC for the business of Pony Club. New Board of Governors will be elected, reports covering the last year will be given, and special recognition and awards will be presented.

Networking

The Annual Meeting provides the best opportunity for you to learn from your peers. Local and Regional leaders from across the country will have time to brainstorm during and in between structured sessions.

Socialize

This year, the club and center leaders will join the RSs for a Thursday evening reception for some casual down time and another even more networking.

Saturday Night Banquet

A time for some serious fun! Join your friends for a wonderful meal and to honor those individuals receiving the Founders' award. Then hit the dance floor.

DCs and CAs - Don't forget: you can be eligible to WIN a FREE registration just by completing your club's fall renewal packet and submitting it to the National Office by the early bird deadline of October 15, 2013!!
